TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Senate House and Caius College. Caius College was founded first in 1384 by Edmund de Gonville and re-founded by Dr. John Caius in 1558. The Senate House, built close to the gates of the college, was erected in 1730, and is notable as the place where the university examinations are held, degrees conferred, etc. Beyond it is the University Library, where many literary treasures are stored.
